Neal Gerber Eisenberg Names Mandi Wolfman Partner in Litigation Group

Neal Gerber Eisenberg has promoted Amanda (Mandi) Wolfman to partner in its Litigation & Disputes practice group, effective Jan. 1, 2026.

Wolfman, who has over a decade of litigation experience, represents public and private corporations, particularly in the healthcare sector. Her work includes trial advocacy and disputes between payors and providers. She also has extensive experience in private arbitration and proceedings in both state and federal courts.

Before joining Neal Gerber Eisenberg, Wolfman served as General Counsel for the Illinois Department of Children and Family Services, where she led more than 100 attorneys and staff. Her legal career includes roles at top-tier and boutique firms, and she began her professional life as a social worker.

Wolfman earned her law degree from Northwestern Pritzker School of Law and holds both a master’s and a bachelor’s degree in social work from the University of Wisconsin-Madison. She is active in community organizations, including the Coalition of Women’s Initiatives in Law, Jewish Reconstructionist Congregation, Unsilence, and Equality Illinois, and she offers pro bono legal support in reproductive health care cases.

The firm described Wolfman as a collaborative leader known for her clear judgment and supportive approach.

About NGE

Neal Gerber Eisenberg (NGE) is a leading law firm trusted by entrepreneurs, public companies, private businesses, and their owners to handle sophisticated legal matters. For 40 years, NGE has built enduring partnerships with clients worldwide, delivering personalized counsel and practical solutions tailored to each client’s unique needs.

More than one-third of the firm’s attorneys are recognized in the latest edition of Best Lawyers in America. NGE represents numerous Fortune 100 companies and many of the nation’s most respected private enterprises.

The firm is also a valued advisor to startups and growth-stage companies, offering strategic counsel that evolves as their businesses grow.