

Neal Gerber Eisenberg Promotes Tanvi B. Patel to Partner in IP Practice Group

Neal Gerber Eisenberg has promoted Tanvi B. Patel, previously an associate of the firm's Intellectual Property group, to partnership, effective Jan. 1, 2020.

A registered patent attorney, Patel has experience in intellectual property law, including patent and trademark litigation, patent prosecution, and client counseling in non-infringement and patent enforcement. As an associate at NGE, Patel served on several trial teams that successfully navigated patent disputes, including winning a jury finding of willful patent infringement in one case and defending against preliminary injunctions in another. Prior to practicing law, Patel worked in the Electric Power Generation group at Caterpillar, Inc.

Patel serves on the Ms. JD board of directors, an organization that supports women in the legal profession and contributes to an ongoing conversation about gender concerns in the field of law.

Patel received her law degree cum laude from DePaul University College of Law and her undergraduate degree in electrical engineering from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.
