

Neal Gerber Eisenberg Welcomes Two Attorneys to Partnership

Neal Gerber Eisenberg (NGE) is pleased to announce that Alexis M. Dominguez, previously an associate of the firm's Labor & Employment group, and Elizabeth (Beth) E. Radichel, previously an associate of the firm's Real Estate group, have been promoted to partner, effective January 1, 2021.

Dominguez focuses his practice on counseling public and private companies on federal and state labor and employment law. He handles traditional labor matters, including negotiating collective bargaining agreements, responding to unfair labor practice charges, and representing clients in arbitration with unions and before state and federal courts throughout the United States. He helps companies comply with wage and hour requirements, Title VII, the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), the Age Discrimination in Employment Act (ADEA), the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA), the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA), state and local civil rights laws and related fair employment laws. The recipient of the firm's 2019 Pro Bono Excellence in Service Award, Alex is actively involved with the nonprofit Equip for Equality in addition to several other charitable institutions. Most recently, U.S. News & World Report and Best Lawyers listed Alex as "One to Watch" for 2021.

Dominguez received his law degree cum laude from Northwestern Pritzker School of Law and his undergraduate degree from Dartmouth College.

Radichel focuses her practice on assisting clients with their real estate needs. She has extensive experience counseling public and private real estate companies, real estate investment trusts, developers, lenders, property management companies and high net worth individuals. She handles matters throughout the United States, including acquisitions and dispositions, financings, construction financings, joint venture formation, corporate structuring, development agreements and leasing. She is an active member of both the firm's Sustainability Committee and it's Women's Network Leadership Team. Beth is committed to pro bono service through her representation of a variety of nonprofit organizations in connection with their transactional legal needs, such as The AIDS Foundation of Chicago.

Radichel received her law degree cum laude from New York University School of Law. She received her undergraduate degree magna cum laude from the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

Neal Gerber Eisenberg is a leading law firm dedicated to handling sophisticated matters for entrepreneurs, public companies, and private businesses and their owners. Our attorneys provide legal business solutions to public and private entities of all types—including Fortune 100 companies, financial institutions, nonprofits and high net worth individuals—in connection with domestic and global business transactions and litigation. The firm has built over thirty years of trusted partnerships with clients that span the globe, and we meet each unique client need with the same personalized service and collaboration that provide the most practical solutions for every matter.