New Law School Rankings Place NYU In Top Spot

A new study that ranks law schools by the quality of their overall faculty "team" puts New York University at the top of the list, reports Above the Law.

"It's not an entirely new concept, but where J.B. Heaton's project 'Who Fields the Best Team? A (Better) Measure of the Top Ten U.S. Law Schools by Faculty Impact' differs from prior stabs at this metric is in focusing on faculty excellence across specialties," explains editor Joe Patrice. "Most law students don't walk through the door knowing exactly where their career will take them – the law school with the best experts in a number of different specialties provides students with the best foundation for later success."

Harvard's law school takes the number 2 slot on the list.
