

NEW LEADERSHIP AT MAC TAYLOR INN OF COURT

CHAD RUBACK was elected President of the Mac Taylor Inn of Court. Ruback is a former Fort Worth Court of Appeals briefing attorney, and he founded his own Dallas-based appellate law firm sixteen years ago. He is a former President of the Dallas Association of Young Lawyers and a former member of the Dallas Bar Association's Board of Directors.

JUDGE MARTIN HOFFMAN was elected as the Inn's Counselor, which is the title conferred upon the person expected to become the next Inn President. Judge Hoffman has presided over the 68th District Court for fourteen years. Among other accolades, he has been named Trial Judge of the Year by the American Board of Trial Advocates Dallas Chapter, has been named the Outstanding Jurist of the Year by the Dallas Women Lawyers Association, and has received the Outstanding Mentor Award from the Dallas Association of Young Lawyers. He is a member of the Dallas Bar Association's Board of Directors.
