New York Regulator Subpoenas Insurance Broker Over Trump Organization Dealings

Image by Nick Youngson and Image Creator

Reuters is reporting that New York State's financial regulator has subpoenaed the insurance broker for President Donald Trump's family business, citing a person familiar with the matter.

The subpoena came after former Trump lawyer Michael Cohen told Congress the president inflated the value of assets to insurers, according to Reuters reporter Suzanne Barlyn.

The source said the New York State Department of Financial Services issued the subpoena late Monday to Aon Plc, a global insurance broker and risk management firm that works for the Trump Organization. The subpoena seeks files about Aon's dealing with Trump and Trump Organization since 2009, the person said.

Read the Reuters article.