

Nike Names New Top Lawyer as Long Time General Counsel Steps Down

“Nike Inc said Wednesday that its general counsel Hilary Krane is stepping down from the post after nearly 12 years. The athletic gear and apparel maker said it is elevating another longtime company lawyer, Ann Miller, to take over her position. Krane has decided to retire in February, the Beaverton, Oregon,” reports Xiumei Dong in Reuters.

“She joined Nike in 2010 from Levi Strauss & Co and most recently served as chief administrative officer and executive vice president as well as general counsel. Krane could not immediately be reached, and Nike did not respond to a request for comment on her plans after departing the company. Miller joined Nike in 2007.”
