named as among the top practitioners in the state and congratulate them on their successes that have resulted in their ranking as Super Lawyers and Rising Stars,” said Bradley Chairman of the Board and Managing Partner Jonathan M. Skeeters.

Only the top 5 percent of lawyers in Florida are named Super Lawyers. No more than 2.5 percent of lawyers in the state are selected as Rising Stars, who must be 40 years old or younger or have been in practice for 10 or fewer years. Published by Thomson Reuters, Super Lawyers uses independent research, peer nominations and peer evaluations to determine the honorees. The Super Lawyers and Rising Stars lists will be published in June in the Florida Super Lawyers Magazine. The lists also are distributed to attorneys and ABA-accredited law school libraries.
