

North Texas Lawyer Who Participated in Capitol Riot Fired from his Job

"A North Texas lawyer has been fired by his employer after he was seen on video outside the Capitol building along with hundreds of other supporters of President Trump on Wednesday," reports Domingo Ramirez Jr. in the Forth Worth Star Telegram.

"Social media posts identified the attorney as Paul Davis, who was an associate general counsel and director of human resources at Goosehead Insurance, a company based in Westlake."

"On Wednesday, Davis posted a video on Instagram saying that he was outside the Capitol building and he had just been tear-gassed."

Read the article.