

Pact's Experts Discuss Why ESG Matters and Partnering for Positive Impact

"Roger-Mark De Souza is Pact's Vice President for Sustainable Markets. Over his more than 20-year career, De Souza has built social, economic, health and environmental justice and resilience programs, teams and movements across the world to encourage local ownership and empowerment. David," reports CSR Wire in their blog.

"Bonnardeaux is the Director of Pact's Environment practice. A seasoned environment and natural resource management practitioner, Bonnardeaux has more than 15 years of experience living and working across the globe, from Malawi, Ghana, Ethiopia and Zimbabwe, to Vietnam, Myanmar, Thailand, Mexico and Peru. Cristina Villegas."

Read the article.