

Perkins Coie Adds Seasoned Litigator Lori Gordon To Intellectual Property Practice

Perkins Coie is pleased to announce that Lori A. Gordon has joined the firm's Intellectual Property practice as a partner in the Washington, D.C., office.

Lori counsels clients in a range of industries with an emphasis on post-grant review proceedings before the Patent Trial and Appeal Board (PTAB). Lori has been recognized by the PTAB Bar Association as the top woman litigator since the PTAB's founding based on number of trials.

In addition to her extensive PTAB trial experience, Lori also has significant experience leading invalidity cases in district court. Lori has worked on matters involving myriad technologies including semiconductor devices and fabrication, data communication, data security, cryptography and e-commerce.

Lori earned her J.D., summa cum laude, from Seton Hall University School of Law, her B.S., cum laude, in electrical engineering from Lafayette College, and her M.S. in electrical engineering from Pennsylvania State University. Lori's talents have been widely recognized, including as a finalist for PTAB Litigator of the Year in 2017 and 2019.

Lori joins Perkins Coie from King & Spalding LLP, where she was a partner in the Trial and Global Disputes and Intellectual Property, Patent, Trademark and Copyright Litigation groups.
