

Peter Bartolino Joins Persefoni as General Counsel

“Persefoni, the leading Climate Management & Accounting Platform CMAP for enterprises and financial institutions, today announced that Peter Bartolino has been appointed as the company’s General Counsel. In his new role, Bartolino will lead Persefoni’s legal, compliance and regulatory functions,” reports PR Newswire in their blog.

“Bartolino is a veteran corporate attorney and a trusted advisor with more than two decades of legal experience across a wide range of matters, including securities law, corporate finance, corporate governance, mergers & acquisitions, and environmental, social & governance (ESG). He joins Persefoni from the Fortune.”

Read the article.