

PetSmart General Counsel Joins Retail Litigation Center Board

“Lacey Bundy, SVP, general counsel and corporate secretary of Phoenix-based PetSmart, has been elected to the Retail Litigation Center (RLC) board of directors. The RLC is the legal arm of the Retail Industry Leaders Association (RILA),” posted Bridget Goldschmidt in Retail Leader’s Retail News.

“The only organization dedicated to advocating for the industry’s top priorities in the federal and state judiciary, the RLC was founded by Washington, D.C.-based RILA in 2010 as an independent organization. RILA’s members include more than 200 retailers, product manufacturers and service suppliers, which collectively account for more than $1.5 trillion in annual sales, millions of American jobs, and 100,000-plus stores, manufacturing facilities and distribution centers domestically and abroad.”

Read the article.