

Policy and Medicine Compliance Update February 2022 Issue Focuses on Emerging Trends in Compliance Plus 340B and FTC Litigation

“Policy and Medicine Compliance Update is our monthly compliance publication designed to help compliance professionals go in depth in issues and stay up to date on the latest trends.,” reports Thomas Sullivan in Policy & Medicine.

“Like 2019 and 2020 before it, 2021 was an extraordinarily busy year for life science compliance professionals. Although a few new focus areas emerged, most critical developments aligned with previous trends from 2019 and 2020.”
