ACC Conducting 2018 Global Compensation Survey

The Association of Corporate Counsel is conducting the new 2018 Global Compensation Survey – the largest self-reported compensation survey within the in-house counsel profession in the world.

This groundbreaking global study of salaries and total compensation will provide in-house counsel and legal operations professionals with the data they need to benchmark pay and benefits.

Participants who complete the survey will receive 25 percent off the report when published.

Take the survey