Nov. 8 Live Event: General Counsel and Experts Share New Drivers of Diversity

Bloomberg Law's 4th annual Talent and Diversity Forum brings together industry leaders to share insights on what can actually increase diversity in the legal industry.

The event will be November 8, 2018, 8 a.m. to noon, in the offices of Bloomberg Government, 1101 K Street, NW, Washington, DC 2005.

With the emergence of new technologies and increased data analysis, the industry has seen significant shifts in recruiting and retention strategies and the emergence of an operations and value-driven business model, Bloomberg says on its website.

The half-day program will bring together corporate diversity champions, general counsel, and industry experts to offer up the newest ideas for bridging the ongoing diversity gap, from using technology to analyze data on prospective attorneys to ways to adapt an organization's overall diversity initiatives to best suit an in-house legal team.

Key topics will include:

- Harnessing diversity in the changing business of law
- Using data and technology to increase diversity
- Workshopping scenarios to tackle diversity issues
