Longtime Colleagues Reunite to Create Labor & Employment Section

Christie Newkirk and Mark A. Shank have joined Diamond McCarthy LLP in Dallas and created the firm's Labor & Employment Law Section.

The firm said Newkirk has more than 20 years' experience representing employers and executives. Her work involves litigation, counseling, investigations, training, and representing executives.

Shank's practice focuses on complex disputes, which he arbitrates, investigates, prosecutes, or defends as a neutral across the nation, according to the firm.

Read about the two lawyers.