

Fears Nachawati's $166M Verdict Ranked As Largest Intentional Tort Award in Texas for 2018

The $166 million jury verdict secured by Fears Nachawati for the son of a North Texas woman killed for the proceeds of her life insurance policies has been recognized by The National Law Journal as 2018's largest intentional tort award in Texas.

The May 2018 jury verdict in Tarrant County's 141st Judicial District Court was also ranked the sixth largest among all verdicts in Texas and the 14th largest nationally for the year. Rankings are based upon national court records compiled by the NLJ's research affiliate, VerdictSearch, coupled with its own research of online news sources and databases.

Read more about the case.