HBO’s “The Future of Work” Featuring LawGeex

Vice News recently reported on the technological revolution overtaking the world in transportation, distribution, food service, health – and legal.

The HBO VICE News special features LawGeex in its report on “The Future of Work.”

In a repeat of the AI vs. Lawyer competition – this time officiated by HBO’s Vice News – the LawGeex AI came out ahead again.

On its website, LawGeex displays a short clip showing how LawGeex performed better in both speed and accuracy.
