Webinar: Contract Review Automation in Action

In an upcoming webinar, LawGeex will demonstrate how modern legal teams are revolutionizing their daily contract review processes.

The 45-minute event will be Wednesday, Feb. 21, beginning at 2 p.m. Eastern time.

On its website, LawGeex says the webinar will show how modern legal teams are revolutionizing their daily contract review processes. This will be a practical look at using on-the-ground solutions for contract review automation.

The webinar will cover:

- What is contract review automation?
- How are leading legal teams using this technology today?
- How to dramatically reduce the time and cost of contract review and approval.
- A live demonstration of contract review automation in action.
