2020 Governance Outlook: Projections on Emerging Board Matters

The National Association of Corporate Directors has published “2020 Governance Outlook: Projections on Emerging Board Matters.”

A complimentary copy of the report can be downloaded from the NACD website.

“This governance outlook provides insights and information from a roundup of leading experts,” NACD says. “It’s a curated compilation of the most significant issues expected to affect boards and companies in the year ahead, including issues such as the next recession, regulatory changes, strategic business risks, legal risks, board composition, the digital frontier, ESG and shareholder engagement, and water scarcity risk.”

Download a copy of the report.