National Law Journal Honors Loewinsohn Flegle Deary Simon

Loewinsohn Flegle Deary Simon has earned a place on the 2018 Elite Trial Lawyers finalist list for Business Torts as selected by editors and reporters of American Lawyer Media's National Law Journal.

The publication's research staff selected the Dallas-based firm for its lawyers' "exemplary performance in cutting-edge work on behalf of plaintiffs over the last 18 months." Finalists were chosen from 300 submissions across 23 categories. The selection process is designed to identify firms "that have achieved exemplary results for their clients."

Earlier this year, the firm was honored as a Tier 1 Law Firm, the highest-possible ranking, by U.S. News – Best Lawyers in America based on confidential feedback from clients and other lawyers. All six of the firm's principals are listed in The Best Lawyers in America.
