Complimentary Webinar: Best Practices for Vendor Risk Profiling

A new NAVEX Global webinar will discuss how to find the right approach to third-party risk management by applying appropriate risk factors.

The complimentary webinar will be on Wednesday, Feb. 6, 2019, at 10 a.m. Pacific time (1 p.m. Eastern). Anyone unable to attend the live presentation may register to receive a webinar recording on-demand.

Michael Volkov, an expert on the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, will provide practical use cases and actionable steps, NAVEX says on its website.

Volkov, a former federal prosecutor, will discuss how to:

- Assess and define your third-party risk
- Build a best practice approach for your organization
- Handle potentially "high-risk" third parties
- Structure your program for maximum effectiveness
