Learn How to Address & Prevent Harassment – Online Master Class

NAVEX Global will conduct its first-ever online master class when it presents "Addressing & Preventing Sexual Harassment."

The complimentary, 2.5-hour event, will be Wednesday, Feb. 28, 2018, beginning at 8:30 a.m. Pacific time | 11:30 a.m. Easter time.

"With the onslaught of high-profile sexual harassment allegations and an emerging "speak-up" movement around the globe, it's evident that ignorance and a blind-eye has plagued our culture for too long," NAVEX says on its website. "It is imperative—now more than ever—that your organization's leadership fully understands what defines harassment and how to address it in the workplace."
