

Principle Business Enterprises Names Bell General Counsel, VP

“Principle Business Enterprises Inc. has announced the promotion of Tricia Bell to general counsel and vice president, strategic risk management,” was posted in the Sentinel-Tribune.

“As a member of the company’s senior leadership team, she will lead PBE’s legal and risk management efforts with a focus on risk mitigation and strategic direction relative to business and operational compliance.”

“Bell has been a leader of PBE’s Risk Aversion Team which is accountable for the safety of all onsite and offsite Associates during the coronavirus pandemic. Her contribution to this team has kept the company informed on health policies, associate benefit options and tax strategies that have allowed PBE to continue manufacturing as an essential business, as well as keep associates safe and employed.”

Read the article.