Quarles & Brady Partner Appointed Vice Chair of ABA Task Force

The national law firm of Quarles & Brady LLP announces that Washington, D.C. partner Brenda Maloney Shafer has been appointed Vice Chair of the Military and Veterans Health Law Task Force for the American Bar Association (ABA) Health Law Section.

Shafer will serve a one-year term, beginning on Sept. 1, 2015. She has past military experience, serving as a United States Army nurse corps officer.

Shafer is a member of the firm's Health Law Practice Group. She focuses her practice primarily in health law, and in particular, health care regulatory and transactional work. She received her law degree, cum laude, from the University of New Mexico, her master of laws in health law from Saint Louis University, and her bachelor of science in nursing degree from Creighton University.