

Quarles & Brady's Website Wins Top Honor at LMA Conference

The national law firm of Quarles & Brady LLP has announced that the firm's website, quarles.com, won first place at the Legal Marketing Association (LMA) Annual Conference in the category of "Total Website."

The firm partnered with Great Jakes, a leading developer of attorney websites, creating a tech-savvy experience for anyone that visits the website via a desktop, mobile device, or tablet. "We launched our website in September 2014 and it's truly remarkable," said firm chair Kimberly Leach Johnson. "We hope our clients and visitors continue to find value in what we have created."

The 2015 winners of the prestigious LMA Your Honor Awards were recognized at the 2015 LMA Annual Conference in San Diego. The winners will also be featured in a special issue of LMA Weekly, in the legal marketing publication Strategies, and via a dedicated section of the LMA website. This year, there were 10 Your Honor Awards categories, covering every area of legal marketing, including advertising, events, media relations, and websites.
