Jodi Patt Pellettiere Honored with ’40 Under 40′ Recognition

The national law firm of Quarles & Brady LLP announced that Chicago partner Jodi Patt Pellettiere has been honored among the “40 Illinois Attorneys under 40 to Watch” by the Law Bulletin Publishing Company, Chicago Lawyer, and The Chicago Daily Law Bulletin.

Law Bulletin Publishing Company conducts an annual survey to determine who Illinois attorneys believe are the “up and comers” of law in the state of Illinois. Attorneys cannot recommend themselves or attorneys from their own law firm or organization. “This is a great honor, and it is especially meaningful for the recognition to have come from my clients,” said Pellettiere.

Pellettiere is a partner in the firm’s Tax-Exempt Organizations Practice Group, where she dedicates her practice to advising both non-profits and for-profits on the corporate and tax issues impacting tax-exempt organizations. She advises public charities (including, for example, universities and hospitals) and private foundations, among others, on complex matters such as grantmaking (foreign and domestic), investments (including program-related investments), and private benefit, private inurement, and self-dealing issues, and she regularly represents clients applying for or maintaining tax-exempt status.

She received her law degree, cum laude, from Northwestern University School of Law and her bachelor’s degree from the University of Illinois.
