

Robert Stracks Joins Quarles & Brady's Business Law Practice Group

✘ The national law firm of Quarles & Brady LLP has announced that Robert Stracks has joined the firm's Chicago office in its Business Law Practice Group.

Stracks assists broker-dealers in the municipal securities industry with respect to regulatory matters and municipal securities offerings. Prior to joining Quarles & Brady LLP, he spent more than 40 years as inside and outside counsel to several municipal securities dealers with full responsibility for legal and compliance matters, including general supervisory and operating procedures, primarily disclosure and due diligence matters with respect to new offerings, continuing disclosure matters, municipal advisor regulation, supervisory controls, annual compliance reviews and continuing education programs.

He received his law degree, magna cum laude, from Harvard Law School and his bachelor's degree, with distinction, from the University of Michigan.

About Quarles & Brady LLP

Quarles & Brady is a full-service AmLaw 200 firm with more than 475 attorneys offering an array of legal services to corporate and individual clients that range from small entrepreneurial businesses to Fortune 100 companies, with practice focuses in health care and life sciences, business law, labor and employment, real estate, data privacy and security, and complex litigation. The firm has offices in Chicago; Indianapolis; Madison; Milwaukee; Naples, Florida; Phoenix; Scottsdale; Tampa; Tucson; and Washington, D.C. Additional information can be found online at quarles.com, as well as on Twitter, LinkedIn, and Facebook.