RE/MAX Parent Appoints General Counsel and Compliance Chief

“NYSE-listed RE/MAX Holdings, parent company of RE/MAX and Motto Mortgage, has promoted Susie Winders to become general counsel, chief compliance officer and corporate secretary. Winders most recently was vice president, assistant general counsel for RE/MAX, managing its legal department,” reports Ben Maiden in Corporate Secretary.

“Litigation teams and overseeing elements of the compliance program. In her new role, she leads the legal and contracts departments, which handle corporate governance and compliance, trademark and advertising, franchising, M&A contracts and licensing litigation privacy and employment matters. RE/MAX is one the largest US franchisor.”

Read the article.