

Real Estate Litigation: Avoid It or Win It

☒ Smith, Anderson, Blount, Dorsett, Mitchell & Jernigan will present a free webinar on real estate litigation. The webinar will be Tuesday, Oct. 7, beginning at 1:30 p.m. Eastern time.

The firm says this session will focus on commercial real estate transactions and ways to avoid litigation by managing risk on the front end, with proper contract drafting or proper oversight of performances prior to the closing.

The webinar will examine how deals can go sideways due to actions and statements made by the parties, their brokers and their closing attorneys, resulting in changes to contractual rights and obligations that may be surprising to the parties. In addition, the presenter will look at what to do and not do if litigation is filed, and the risk of ancillary disputes arising out of the real estate litigation.
