Rebecca Blake Chaikin Joins Jackson Walker's Bankruptcy, Restructuring, & Recovery Practice in Houston

HOUSTON – Jackson Walker is pleased to announce the addition of Rebecca Blake Chaikin as a partner in the Houston office's Bankruptcy, Restructuring, & Recovery practice.

"Rebecca is an outstanding bankruptcy lawyer who brings extensive and valuable experience to our team," said Practice Chair Bruce J. Ruzinsky. "We have had the pleasure of working with her in the past on Chapter 11 cases for Denbury Resources, Jones Energy, and JCPenney. Rebecca is not only very experienced, she also possesses a collaborative and good-humored demeanor, and she utilizes a practical and creative approach to cases, that blends really well with the team."

Rebecca offers extensive experience representing debtors and creditors in connection with corporate restructuring, bankruptcy, and financial distress. She also has experience with international and cross-border insolvency and out-of-court restructurings throughout Texas, Delaware, New York, and Virginia bankruptcy courts. In recognition of her practice, she has been named a "One to Watch" in the area of Bankruptcy and Creditor Debtor Rights / Insolvency and Reorganization Law by The Best Lawyers in America since 2021.

"I am excited to join Jackson Walker's first-rate bankruptcy and restructuring practice," Rebecca said. "Having collaborated closely with the team on several Chapter 11 cases over the past three years, I am confident we will work well together and that I will contribute to the incredible service they already provide to companies in distress.”

She received her J.D. from New York University School of Law and her B.A., magna cum laude, from Brandeis University.
