

Rebecca L. Palmer Law Group Attorney Cathleen M. Winter Appointed to GOAABA Board of Directors for 2020-2021 Term

The Rebecca L. Palmer Law Group is proud to announce the appointment of attorney Cathleen M. Winter to the Greater Orlando Asian American Bar Association (GOAABA) 2020-2021 Board of Directors. Winter's current role with GOAABA will last until July, 2021 and she has been an involved member of GOAABA prior to her appointment.

GOAABA, incorporated in 2009, is a voluntary organization that represents the interests of Asian American attorneys, law students, and other legal professionals in the Greater Orlando area.

At the Rebecca L. Palmer Law Group, Winter focuses her practice on family law, including areas concerning divorce, alimony and spousal support, child support, custody and visitation, modification proceedings, paternity, prenuptial agreements, and postnuptial agreements.

In addition to being appointed to the GOAABA Board of Directors, Winter is also member of the Florida Bar, the Orange County Bar Association, the Central Florida Family Law Inn of Court, and is a Founding Member of the American Academy for Certified Financial Litigators Orlando Chapter.

Winter has also been recognized by the American Institute of Family Law Attorneys for exceptional and outstanding client service and was listed as the 10 Best Attorneys in Florida in 2018. Winter was also selected to the 2020 Florida Rising Stars list. Each year, no more than 2.5 percent of the lawyers in the state are selected by the research team at Super Lawyers to receive this honor.

Winter also received a 2021 Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch recognition for her work in Family Law. The Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch is a recognition for attorneys for outstanding professional excellence in private practice in the United States. Winter was further recently listed as one of Orlando Family Magazine's Awesome Attorneys in Family Law for 2021.
