Rebecca L. Palmer Law Group Attorneys Cathleen Winter and Cynthia Winter Become Founding Members of Newly Launched AACFL Orlando Chapter

ORLANDO, FLA: June, 2021 – The Rebecca L. Palmer Law Group is proud to announce that attorneys Cathleen Winter and Cynthia Winter are founding members of the recently launched American Academy for Certified Financial Litigators (AACFL) Orlando Chapter as founding members. Joined by other Central Florida legal professionals, the organization's mission is to solve a growing problem in the divorce world – a rapidly changing economy and client demand for financially savvy attorneys.

In addition to being siblings, Cathleen and Cynthia Winter are talented legal professionals with a shared passion for the law and serve as critical members of the Rebecca L. Palmer Law Group.

Cathleen Winter received her Juris Doctor degree from the University of Florida. In addition to being appointed to the GOAABA Board of Directors, Cathleen is also a member of the Florida Bar, the Orange County Bar Association, and the Central Florida Family Law Inn of Court. Cathleen was selected to the 2020 Super Lawyers Florida Rising Stars list and received a 2021 Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch recognition for her work in Family Law.

Cynthia received her Juris Doctor degree from the University of Florida. Cynthia is licensed to practice law in Federal matters in the United States Federal Court for the Middle District of Florida. Cynthia is a member of the Florida Bar, the Orange County Bar Associated, the Central Florida Family Law Inn of Court, and GOABBA. Cynthia was selected to the 2020 Super Lawyers Rising Stars list and has received recognition by Best Lawyers her work in Family Law annually since 2019.

The Orlando Florida chapter of the AACFL is an organization of elite professionals dedicated to excellence in the financial aspects of litigation. Membership indicated significant commitment to the community by improving the court system's efficiency through advance financial education for attorneys.
