

Rebecca L. Palmer Law Group Welcomes Family Law Attorney Corinne A. Huston; Continues Growth

The Rebecca L. Palmer Law Group is pleased to announce the addition of family law attorney Corinne A. Huston to its talented team of legal professionals. Huston brings several years of experience, specializing in family law, guardianship, adoption, and mediation.

"We are excited to bring Corinne to the team," said Rebecca Palmer, Owner and Managing Partner of the firm. "Her area of focus and background is a strong addition to our growing firm, and we cannot wait to see how she positively impacts our firm and our clients."

As the firm's newest family law attorney, Huston has experience advocating depositions, researching legal precedence, and counseling clients in family law. Having worked in law firms in Orlando, Gainesville, and Tampa, she stood out as a young and determined attorney who excelled in whatever role given.

"I am honored to join such a distinguished law firm," said Huston. "The Rebecca L. Palmer Law Group provides a fantastic opportunity for my career. I am excited to leverage my experience and grow as an attorney, to help best serve our firm's team and clients."

Huston started her legal career as a legal assistant at Hancock Law Firm shortly after graduating from the University of South Florida with a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science. She then started her law degree at the University of Florida while serving as a legal intern at Virgil D. Hawkins Family Advocacy Clinic. After graduating with her J.D. from the University of Florida, she started her attorney career at Coye

Law Firm before taking an attorney position at Wicker, Smith, O'Hara, McCoy & Ford.
