

Recon Announces Some Recent Contracts and Business Progress

“Recon Technology, Ltd today announced several contracts signed recently by its domestic VIE companies and reported the progress on its business segments so far for the year 2022. For its automation business segment, the Company was awarded RMB3.26 million in contracts by the Shenhua Group,” reports PR Newswire in their blog.

“For its equipment and accessories business segments, the Company won RMB2.39 million in contracts in January and February, which include contracts for furnaces accessories and electric submersible progressing cavity pump and Online transactions through FGS’ digitization services for gas stations of for year 2022 have also been.”

Read the article.