

Relief For Business Owners and Consumers From Patent Litigation

☒ The United States Patent and Trademark Office will present a complimentary webinar on the Patent Litigation Online Tool Kit, a web site designed to assist consumers and small business owners who receive letters accusing them of patent infringement.

The webinar will be Thursday, Sept. 18, beginning at noon Eastern time.

The webinar will discuss the litigation tool kit, which answers common questions about patent litigation such as:

- What are my options for responding to the suit?
- How can I tell whether or not I'm infringing?
- How do I find a lawyer?
- How can I challenge a patent or patent application?

Register for the webinar.
