

RH Urgent Action Webinar: National Town Hall – Restaurant Tenants & Landlords: New Terms for a New World

Restaurateurs and landlords now realize an inescapable truth: most existing leases are not suitable for a COVID-19 world. Restaurateurs have no incentive to return to business absent significant lease modifications coupled with government support.

To survive, restaurateurs and landlords must work together. Fighting makes no sense. Negotiating leases piecemeal is costly and inefficient.

Ideally, restaurateurs and landlords can agree on model terms to get through the recovery period efficiently and successfully.

Join this dynamic session for perspective on terms from both restaurateurs and landlords.
