Robert Cox Earns Business Bankruptcy Law Specialty Certification

Bradley Arant Boult Cummings LLP is pleased to announce that Robert A. Cox Jr., a partner in the firm's Charlotte office, has been recognized as a Board Certified Specialist in Business Bankruptcy Law by the North Carolina State Bar.

"We congratulate Rob on earning distinction as a North Carolina board-certified Business Bankruptcy Law attorney," said Bradley Charlotte Office Managing Partner Christopher C. Lam. "This certification is proof of his leadership, skills and high standards of commitment to the practice."

The North Carolina State Bar certifies lawyers as specialists in designated practice areas as a service to the public. To be certified as a board certified specialist in a practice area, a lawyer must be an active member in good standing with the North Carolina State Bar for at least five years, devote at least 25% of his or her practice to the specialty during the past five years, attend continuing legal education (CLE) seminars in the specialty, be favorably evaluated by other lawyers and judges, and pass a written examination in the specialty practice area. Certification is granted for a period of five years and may be renewed if the lawyer meets the same requirements at the time of renewal.

A member of Bradley's Bankruptcy Practice Group, Mr. Cox focuses his practice on financial restructuring and insolvency, including bankruptcy, creditors' rights, commercial workouts, bankruptcy related litigation, and distressed asset acquisitions. He represents corporate debtors, secured lenders, unsecured creditors, asset acquirers, lessors, equity holders, and other parties in interest in bankruptcies and out of court workouts in matters throughout the United States.

About Bradley
Bradley combines skilled legal counsel with exceptional client service and unwavering integrity to assist a diverse range of corporate and individual clients in achieving their business goals. With offices in Alabama, Florida, Mississippi, North Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, and the District of Columbia, the firm’s nearly 550 lawyers represent regional, national and international clients in various industries, including banking and financial services, construction, energy, healthcare, life sciences, manufacturing, real estate, and technology, among many others.