

Rosemary Harnisher Has Been Elected as a New York Bar Foundation Fellow

Farrell Fritz is pleased to announce that Rosemary Harnisher has been named a Fellow of The New York Bar Foundation.

Rosemary, a resident of Wantagh, New York, is counsel in the firm's trusts & estates group.

She earned her J.D. from St. John's University School of Law and her B.A., magna cum laude, from Drew University.

Fellows are nominated by peers and recognized for distinguished achievement, dedication to the legal profession, and commitment to the organized bar and service to the public. "Being a Fellow of The New York Bar Foundation is an honor," states Chair of the Fellows, Emily F. Franchina. "Fellows represent one percent of the New York State Bar Association membership. Being nominated and elected is a notable achievement."

As Foundation ambassadors, Fellows exemplify the spirit of caring and sharing by demonstrating their belief that the practice of law is a helping profession. For more information regarding the Fellows or The New York Bar Foundation visit www.tnybf.org.
