

Saint Joseph's University Appoints Tracey S. Pachman New General Counsel

Saint Joseph's University has appointed Tracey S. Pachman, J.D., to serve as the University's General Counsel, the result of a thorough national search. Pachman, who joins Saint Joseph's on April 14, brings nearly 20 years of deep and varied higher education legal experience to the University. She specializes in contracts, intellectual property, research, employment and student matters, and other higher education law issues," reports Saint Joseph's University.

"Pachman succeeds Marianne Schimelfenig, J.D., who has served as the University's General Counsel since 2008."

"Prior to Pachman's tenure at Villanova, where she served as deputy general counsel since 2014, she was the assistant general counsel for ARAMARK, serving the K-12 and higher education business, and held positions at Comcast as senior counsel and Pepper Hamilton LLP as an associate."

Read the article.