How Accessible Are Your Contracts in 2015?

Seal Software offers a free on-demand webinar on contract fundamentals needed to extract the maximum value from your contracts.

On its website, Seal says whether your interest lies in procurement, sales, finance, legal or elsewhere, in order to extract the maximum value from your contracts, you must be able to answer the following fundamental questions:

- How many contracts do you have and where are they located?
- Can you quickly and easily locate specific contracts or clauses in the event of a critical occurrence?
- Do you know which of your contracts or provisions buried in your contracts pose the greatest risk?
- Are you missing out on cost savings and revenue opportunity hidden in your contracts?
