

Seven Bradley Attorneys Elected as American Bar Foundation Fellows

Bradley Arant Boult Cummings LLP is pleased to announce that seven of the firm's partners have been elected as Fellows of the American Bar Foundation (ABF). T. Michael Brown, William C. Byrd, Frank M. Caprio, E. Mabry Rogers, David Roth, Charles Stewart and T. Sky Woodward have been inducted into the global honor society.

The ABF Fellows is a global honorary society that recognizes attorneys, judges, law faculty and legal scholars whose public and private careers have demonstrated outstanding dedication to the highest principles of the legal profession and to the welfare of their communities. Members are nominated by their peers and elected by the ABF board. The Fellows support the research of the ABF and sponsor seminars and events of direct relevance to the legal profession. The independent, nonprofit ABF seeks to advance the understanding and improvement of law through research projects on the most pressing issues facing the legal system in the United States and the world.

Almost 60 Bradley attorneys across all the firm's offices have been inducted as ABF Fellows. Membership in the Fellows is limited to one percent (1%) of lawyers licensed to practice in each jurisdiction. ABF Fellows hail from nearly 40 countries and hold a wide variety of influential roles.
