Shipping Oil and Gas – Ownership Implication and the Jones Act

Squire Patton Boggs and NASDAQ OMX Corporate Solutions offer a complimentary on-demand webinar title “Shipping Oil and Gas – Ownership Implications and the Jones Act.”

Squire Patton Boggs Senior Partner John J. Reilly and NASDAQ OMX Managing Director of the Global, Tax and Regulatory team Juliane Keppler, lead the presentation.

The firm says on its website that the webinar teaches how to identify your global shareholder base and the implications maritime regulations have in a number of areas:

- Learn about Jones Act and the expanding Oil and Gas shipping industry
- Understand how the Tricor decision impacts the Jones Act
- Obtain best practices to identify your global shareholder base and if your company is meeting the Jones Act criteria or other regulatory guidelines
