

Sidley Adds Prominent Restructuring Partner Tom Califano in New York

“Sidley is is pleased to announce that Tom Califano is joining the firm’s global Restructuring group. Mr. Califano will be a partner in the New York office. He joins from DLA Piper where he was the global co-chair and U.S. chair of the Restructuring group,” released Sidley in their News.

“As a nationally recognized restructuring lawyer, Mr. Califano represents large private and public companies, both in and out of court, buyers of distressed companies, and significant ad-hoc creditor constituencies with a particular focus on company and buyer-side representations. During his more than 30 years in practice, he has extensive experience working within multiple industries, including healthcare, energy, and financial services restructurings.”

Read the article.