

Sidley Elects Three Texas Lawyers to Partnership

Sidley Austin

LLP has promoted three Texas lawyers to partner. The newly elected Texas lawyers are Tara Lancaster and Charles Persons in the firm's Dallas office and Katy L. Lukaszewski in the Houston office. Lancaster is in the firm's tax group, Persons is in Sidley's restructuring practice group, and Lukaszewski is in the firm's energy group. The three join 28 Sidley lawyers elected firmwide effective January 1, 2021.

"We could not be prouder of the talented lawyers that make up our 2021 partnership class," said Mike Schmidtberger, chair of Sidley's Executive Committee. "They are a diverse group that represent a broad mix of practices and offices across geographies. Their many accomplishments to date and dedication to client service have earned them this prestigious recognition. We wish them all the best as they embark on this exciting adventure."
