At least three apparel chains – Wet Seal, Eastern Mountain Sports and Bob’s Stores – are running short of cash and on the verge of filing for bankruptcy protection, according to a New York Post report.

The report by Lisa Fickenscher and Josh Kosman also says outdoor retailer Gander Mountain – some of whose vendors stopped talking orders – have hired financial adviser Lazard.

A regulatory filing indicated Wet Seal – owned by Versa Capital, a private equity firm – reported a poor holiday made it impossible to obtain new financing.

“Over the last several weeks, Versa tried unsuccessfully to sell both EMS and Bob’s, sources said,” according to the Post’s report.
