

Springer Nature's Dale to Join Hachette UK as General Counsel

"Hachette UK has appointed Jane Dale from Springer Nature as its new general counsel, succeeding Alex Hardy who will return to Australia with her family later this year. Dale will take up the role in January 2022, based at Hachette UK's headquarters in Carmelite House. Currently deputy general counsel at," reports The Bookseller in their blog.

"Having joined the company in 2012 as divisional counsel, Dale oversees the legal teams in the UK, China and South Africa, editorial rights and the legal operations function. She is also the legal support partner for Macmillan Education. Before joining Springer Nature, she was assistant regional counsel at Disney UK for more than nine."

Read the article.