Steven Mroczkowski Joins Buchalter as Shareholder in Chicago

Buchalter is excited to announce that Steven Mroczkowski has joined the firm as a Shareholder in its Chicago office. He will be part of the Litigation and Construction Practice Groups.

“We’re pleased to welcome Steve to Buchalter,” said Adam Bass, President and CEO of the firm. “His deep experience in construction litigation and commercial disputes strengthens our capabilities across the Midwest and beyond.”

Mroczkowski represents clients throughout the construction contract chain, including owners, developers, contractors, subcontractors, architects, engineers, lenders, and sureties. His practice covers both transactional matters and dispute resolution. He handles litigation in state and federal courts, as well as arbitration and mediation nationwide.

His legal expertise also includes contract negotiation, lease disputes, commercial foreclosure and workouts, bankruptcy litigation, and a wide range of complex business issues.

“Buchalter’s entrepreneurial culture and full-service platform are a great fit,” said Mroczkowski. “They allow me to expand the legal solutions I deliver and continue building strong, results-driven client relationships.”

“Steve brings a practical, business-minded approach and a deep understanding of the construction industry,” added Tom Jefson, Office Managing Shareholder in Chicago. “He’s a valuable addition to our team and enhances our regional service offering.”

Related Articles in the Legal Industry:
Steven Mroczkowski’s arrival in Chicago is part of Buchalter’s strategic expansion. Following similar growth, the firm recently added Bruce as a Shareholder in the San Francisco Office.

Firm’s National Growth:
Building on Buchalter’s nationwide presence, Mroczkowski’s addition complements other office relocations, such as Buchalter Expands and Relocates its Denver Office to Granite Tower.