Stinson LLP Welcomes Corporate Finance Attorney and Partner John Tucker to Fast Growing Dallas Office

Stinson LLP is proud to welcome Partner John J. Tucker to the Stinson team. Tucker is the third partner to join the Dallas office since June of this year. He brings extensive experience in complex corporate finance transactions throughout Texas and nationwide.

“We’re excited to welcome John to the firm and our growing Dallas office,” said Paul Lackey, Managing Partner of the firm’s Dallas office. “His experience in complex real estate financing transactions and commercial lending strengthens our corporate transactional team as we continue to grow and serve our local and national clients.”

Tucker’s finance practice focuses on fund representation, investment banking, and other institutional lenders. He also assists market participants with commercial mortgage loan origination, securitization, and secondary market transactions. He has significant experience in structuring and advising clients concerning warehouse and repurchase facilities, preferred equity, mezzanine, subordinate, and pari passu financings, as well as whole loan sales, participations, splits, and syndications. He handles acquisitions and dispositions of distressed assets, including representing buyers and servicers in workouts and restructurings, foreclosures, discounted payoffs, and REO sales.

“Stinson’s strong and reputable finance practice drew me to the firm,” said Tucker. “I know I am joining a phenomenal team, and I am excited to be part of such a dynamic and talented practice.”

Tucker has represented lenders and borrowers in syndicated and non-syndicated credit facilities and other types of asset-backed financing transactions. He has experience representing REITs, private equity funds, and other investors in the acquisition, disposition, financing, and development of all types of commercial real estate. Additionally, he has represented purchasers, sellers, and investors in mergers, acquisitions, and financings of privately held entities.

Tucker is admitted to practice law in the State of Texas. He received his J.D. from SMU Dedman School of Law and his undergraduate degree from the University of Alabama.

About Stinson LLP

Stinson LLP collaborates with clients ranging from individuals and privately held enterprises to national companies and international public corporations. Our accomplished attorneys leverage deep knowledge and experience to deliver practical guidance, helping clients minimize risks and realize opportunities. We take pride in our collaborative approach, our lasting relationships, and our unique perspectives. Connect with us at one of our 12 offices nationwide and at stinson.com.